is not a course number 5033 on her transcripts; two semester hours Professional Roles and Standards, she may wish to submit a syllabus for EDPS 5153; three semester hours Cultural Foundations, no course titled Multi Cultural Counseling on transcripts, EDPS 5233 is titled Elementary School Counseling Practicum; two semester hours Therapeutic Methods and Interventions, she may wish to submit a syllabus for PSYCH 5473; one semester hour Dysfunctional Behavior; two semester hours Advanced Assessment of Mental Status; three semester hours Internship. There are several discrepancies between the course titles listed on application and the course titles on her transcript. Ms. Jubelirer will need to submit proof of name change.

ANDREW KALINEN
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

Mr. Kalinen's application was reviewed. His education is complete. He was approved for licensure as a Certified Professional Counselor Intern.

KRISTINE LUBLIN

semester hours Dysfunctional Behavior; two semester hours Advanced Assessment of Mental Status, she may wish to submit a syllabus for COPSY 527; one semester hour Internship, which must include at least 300 clock hours of mental health therapy. She needs to submit an official transcript showing her degree and the date earned and a transcript for EDPSY 508 and PSYCH 361 from Washington State University.

STEPHANIE STEELE
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

Ms. Steele's application was reviewed. Her education is complete. She was approved for licensure as a Certified Professional Counselor Intern.

KRISTA WAGNON
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

Ms. Wagnon's application was reviewed. Her education is complete. She was approved for licensure as a Certified Professional Counselor Intern.

REBECCA WALLENTINE
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

The information submitted by Ms. Wallentine was reviewed. The following courses will be accepted upon receipt of transcript from BYU: CPSE 725 for the area of Advanced Assessment of Mental Status; Psych 503 for the area of Research and Evaluation. CPSE 602 will not be accepted. She should take CPSE 715. She needs to complete the education requirement section again, submit syllabi for any courses not already accepted and indicate any changes to course numbers since she took the course. It appears that her educational program is not one that prepares a person to practice mental health therapy.

REBECCA WILDBEAR
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

Ms. Wildbear's application was reviewed. She is short two semester hours Advanced Assessment of Mental Status. She will enroll in a directed readings course in the area of

Advanced Assessment of Mental Status and also one semester hour Internship.

PAUL WOOLF
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

Mr. Woolf's application was reviewed. His education is complete. He was approved for licensure as a Certified Professional Counselor Intern.

KREG KIRKHAM
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
RE-REVIEW

The information submitted by Mr. Kirkham was reviewed. SOC 134R and 284 were accepted for the area of Therapeutic Methods and Interventions. This area is now complete. He needs to submit a letter verifying the content of his Directed Readings class for the area of Psychopathology and DSM Classification. The transcript from the University of Utah indicates that he did not receive credit for EDPS 630 in the area of Tests and Measurement Theory. He has not submitted evidence of completion of Practicum and Internship.

MISTALYN LEIS
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

The additional information submitted by Ms.
Leis was reviewed. The syllabus submitted for PSY 8560 does not provide content dealing in family pathology for the area of Dysfunctional Behavior. The syllabus indicates that a text in family pathology was used for this course, but the content of the course needs to be explained in more detail. Psych 8240 will be accepted for the area of Advanced Assessment of Mental Status after completion; PSYCH 8540 is accepted for Research and Evaluation; this area is now complete.

TERESA POWERS
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN

The additional information submitted by Ms.
Powers was reviewed. Her education is complete. She was approved for licensure as a Certified Professional Counselor Intern.
